No one but You

C2 D2 D

No one could give me peace to rest

C2 D2 D

No one could give me the right words to speak

No one could give me strength to carry on

C2 D2 D

No one could give me the passion to live

But You, You, You, Jesus

No one could give me wings to fly when this life is too hard No one could give me the joy I found one day No one could give me freedom like eagles No one could give me just enough I need these days But You, You, You, Jesus

No one could give His life for me
No one could love me more than I am loved by You
No one could give everything that He could give
But You, You, You, Jesus
